

'An author after the hearts of Starhawk and Jack Kornfield, this book is a beautiful fusion of guided meditations, journaling, and self-spiritualism that carries a magical undercurrent bringing you closer to yourself and the natural world. Dive deep into your essential self and tap into your highest potential with this inspiring collection.'

Join the 2020 Book Tour!

Start the new year on a mindful note with local author Heather Rae & her new book, A Peace Place to Dwell

Now booking local readings and book signing events

Heather Rae is a meditation teacher, transformational coach, yoga instructor, body & energy worker whose practices are steeped in tradition, magic and loving, supportive energy. With a multi-faceted practice, she believes in a truly integrative approach to self-care and embracing every aspect of yourself to blaze your own trail of awesomeness. Working with clients to tap into their own power, she incorporates many elements to harness the endless potential in everyone.

Now speaking at local businesses and libraries, Heather Rae brings an introduction to the simple facets of a cultivating a personal meditation and spiritual practice.

www.heatherraemagic.com
email-livewell@heatherraemagic.com

Published by Balboa Press-IBSN
978-1-9822-33934-5 or get directly from author